What documents do I require to list a business?

Our easy to use platform will guide you through the process of listing your first business for sale. Have your latest financial statements, management accounts or Income statement available to list your business or create a market related valuation.

You will be required to type up a short marketing report, providing some history and background about the business, the services / products you offer and your employees. Mention some strengths and opportunities buyers can expect from your business and what assets will be included.

Look out for our prompts and tips in the text boxes while completing report information. This is a good guideline to what information buyers usually want to see.

Do I need to renew my subscription every month?

No, all our packages are renewed automatically on the anniversary of your subscription. You may cancel or change your selected package subscription at any time.

Can I change my package later?

Yes, you can change your preferred package at any time from your profile. You can upgrade or downgrade your package depending on your requirements.

What if I need help?

If you need any assistance with regards to registrations, payments, loading a business or simply want to have a chat, send an email info@businessforsale.co.za or give us a call on 083 643 2195.

What about confidentiality?

All information on the Business for Sale system and advertising platform is treated as highly confidential. You are the only one that has access to edit your business information, and you control to whom (interested buyers) the business reports and information gets sent.

It's important that you keep your username and password safe and confidential. Interested buyers are also required to complete a non-disclosure agreement, in order to keep business information confidential.

Who will see my business advert?

Your advert will be seen by thousands of potential buyers, entrepreneurs and investors on our website. Business for Sale is the number one website in finding the perfect business, and buyer for you.
