Set in a charming and well-frequented tourist village on the West Coast of South Africa, the business enjoys a loyal following and consistently high ratings for its food, coffee and welcoming atmosphere.

The operation trades from attractive, character-filled premises offering comfortable indoor and outdoor seating, free parking and easy access. It serves breakfasts, lunches, cakes and freshly prepared meals, complemented by a well-known weekly speciality evening that draws a dedicated crowd and creates an additional income stream beyond regular daytime trade.
