About the Business:

Thriving Private School Offering Proven Growth Potential

An established independent school in the Western Cape, South Africa, is available for acquisition — a profitable, well-managed education business with a decade of trading history and a strong local reputation.

Operating across pre-school through to the senior grades, the school has grown steadily year on year, adding higher grades as demand has increased. This Thriving Private School Offering Proven Growth Potential benefits from small class sizes, a loyal parent community and consistent enrolment, giving a new owner a stable, income-generating foundation from day one.

Why this opportunity stands out:

- * Recurring income from predictable term-based school fees
- * Established brand and reputation built over more than ten years
- * Scalability through additional grades, enrolment growth and complementary services
- * Barriers to entry, as regulatory registration and compliance are already in place
- * Experienced staff and operational systems supporting a smooth handover

This growing, fully operational going concern business suits an education-focused owner-operator, an investor group, or an existing education provider seeking to expand its footprint in a high-demand region. With the capacity to increase learner numbers and broaden its offering, this Thriving Private School Offering Proven Growth Potential rewards hands-on leadership and long-term vision.

The asking price excludes the property. The landlord is prepared to sign a long-term lease with the new owner.
