Business Report

Fully describe the business's activities?

A substantial home that happens to have an established income-producing guesthouse attached to it. The business operates as an established, owner-managed guesthouse in Lynnwood Manor, Pretoria, offering short-term accommodation through three fully furnished guest suites situated on the same property as a substantial private residence. Guests are sourced through established online booking platforms and direct enquiries, with the operation benefiting from strong historical occupancy, repeat business and excellent guest ratings, including 9.6/10 on Booking.com and 5.0/5 on LekkeSlaap.

The guesthouse activities include accommodation management, reservations and guest communications, housekeeping and cleaning, linen and room preparation, maintenance of guest facilities, management of utilities and security, online booking administration and general property upkeep. The property is specially zoned for guesthouse use and is sold as a going concern together with the relevant furniture, fittings, equipment and operating infrastructure.

The business is particularly suited to a resident owner-operator, as the purchaser can occupy the main residence while continuing to operate the three income-producing guest suites.
