About the Business:

Bridal Boutique

Do not miss the chance to join the exciting bridal boutique industry. We are thrilled to present to you this well-established bridal boutique in the Western Cape.

Over the last four years, this bridal boutique has earned a stellar reputation for its quality service and dresses. Boasting a prime location and a dedicated customer base, this bridal boutique has become a go-to destination bridal store in the area.

One-on-one appointments ensure that each client is special to find the dress that perfectly aligns with their individual needs. The extensive range of dresses and designs cater to each client's needs.

Located in a rapidly growing area, this well-established bridal boutique has the potential to tap into various customer segments to grow its market share in the industry. This is a complete business package with a well-curated inventory of bridal gowns and everything needed to run the business smoothly from take-over.

The business has a good online presence with a beautifully designed website and through different popular social media platforms.

This is the ideal business for someone passionate about fashion, styling, or the bridal industry. This business offers an excellent opportunity to turn your passion into a profitable business! A new owner will also be supported by a skilled, experienced team that knows the bridal industry. The seller will also be available for a hand-over period. There are already more than 40 bookings for 2024!

This is an excellent opportunity because this type of business rarely comes on the market and will continue to grow. Do not wait to say "I do" to this business opportunity!
