How does the business operate on a daily basis?

The lodge is not open on a daily basis. It is used exclusively for conferences, weddings, birthday parties, year-end functions, matric dances and christenings.

The owner runs the full operation with his wife and four staff members in order to keep the overheads low, and the service personal.

The owner also selects what business he want's to book/accept based on seasonality and profitability for example hunting guests are more profitable than overnight stays. Wedding or conference guests are more profitable than hunting or lodge guests.

What Advertising/Marketing is carried out?

The owner does no other direct/paid advertising.

What competition exists?

There are a number of guesthouses and game farms in the area, but no real direct competition.

How involved is the Owner in running the business?

The owner is 100% involved in the business, he fulfills all the roles from the professional hunter to chef and everything in between. This is by choice and not by default.

What are the main assets of the business?

Farm land and buildings.
The movable assets consist of the following categories:
- Lodge cutlery & crockery
- Kitchen equipment
- Linen
- Laundry equipment
- Furniture and fittings
- Decor
- Sound systems
- Generator
- Toyota Landcruiser Game Viewer

A detailed asset list is on file

Strengths?

- Lots of water
- Location
- Infrastructure

Weaknesses?

- Limited conferencing facilities and accommodation
- Limited human resources
- No active marketing and advertising

Opportunities?

- Unlimited potential to expand
- Buffalo hunting/breeding
- Bass fishing
- Opening a spa

Threats?

The owner could not identify any threats.

What is the reason for the sale?

There are two main reasons for the sale:
- The owner's health, he suffers from asthma and would like to relocate to a more humid climate.
- The business requires capital investment to scale up the accommodation, the conferencing facilities and the staff resources to create and service multiple income streams simultaneously. The current owner is not prepared to do this due to his health.
