About the Business:

Model Academy and Studio

Are you passionate about the fashion, beauty, and talent development industries? This established model academy and fully operational photographic studio in Gauteng offers a rare chance to own a thriving business with a solid reputation both locally and internationally.

The model academy and studio provide comprehensive training programs in runway techniques, photographic modelling, personal development, and confidence-building, catering to aspiring models of all ages. Complementing the academy, the in-house photographic studio generates additional revenue through professional photography, creative direction, make-up, styling, and studio rentals. This integrated approach boosts revenue while providing comprehensive services tailored to both clients and talent.

The agency represents a diverse range of professionally trained models available for commercial and fashion bookings, connecting faces with brands across South Africa and beyond. Strong industry relationships with photographers, fashion houses, casting directors, and agencies further strengthen its market presence and credibility.

The business operates under a manager-run model, enabling the owner to maintain strategic oversight with minimal involvement in daily operations. The seller remains remotely engaged, overseeing key aspects without direct day-to-day management. This structure makes it an attractive opportunity for investors seeking a hands-off investment or entrepreneurs aiming to establish or grow their presence in the modelling and talent industry. The business offers diverse, integrated services under one roof, ensuring multiple revenue streams and a strong market foothold.

This exceptional opportunity is priced at R1,115,000, excluding VAT, for a 90% share.
