Business Report

Background and History

The current trend is centered around Vapes, Edibles, Mushrooms, and similar products aimed at aiding relaxation, stress relief, anxiety, and various health concerns. Notably, established companies have partnered with Medicinal Cannabis pioneer, CANNABIS OIL RESEARCH, to create CANNAMART.CO.ZA—an online platform featuring a diverse range of over 1,000 products. Additionally, this platform offers an advisory service guiding individuals on Medicinal Cannabis benefits and suitable natural alternatives to replace conventional medication.

With a repository of over 600 protocols covering day-to-day ailments to chronic conditions, CANNAMART is at the forefront of holistic health solutions. Successful applicants will undergo thorough training (3 days) to manage inquiries, supply local sales teams (DSA's), and function as wholesalers for their area—providing products to local wellness and cannabis shops. This opportunity is ideal for a work-from-home setup, with comprehensive training and ongoing support."
