Background and History

Car Service City is a nationwide, award-winning network of over 85 servicing and repairs workshops for all makes of cars and bakkies. Founded in 2004 by Grant Brady, who serves as the franchisor, Car Service City is part of the Car City Holdings group. Most Car Service City locations are owned by franchisees, while some branches in Johannesburg are operated directly by Head Office to ensure that services stay aligned with the needs of both customers and franchisees.

As a franchise, Car Service City guarantees that each of its workshops is managed by highly qualified franchisees and skilled technical personnel, all equipped with advanced technological resources. As a result, you can expect consistent, high-quality service regardless of which workshop you visit, with dedicated professionals ready to assist you.

At the heart of our philosophy and business success is our commitment to offer customers the best quality service through conveniently located workshops, at affordable prices and in the most customer pleasing way.

As proof of this commitment, the brand boasts numerous awards, including the 2017 Star Reader's Choice Winner for Best Car Service Centre; 2017 FASA Winner for Franchisor of the Year; 2017 FASA Finalist for Job Creator of the Year; and 2015 FASA Winner for Job Creator of the Year.

Products and Services

Car Service City offers both major and minor services and keep things authentic during vehicle maintenance and repair by using authentic genuine replacement parts.

Training and Head Office Support

Head Office offers comprehensive support to all franchisees and maintains an open-door policy. Training is a crucial aspect of understanding the operations of the franchise and the training program is designed to equip franchisees with the knowledge and skills required to run the franchise successfully. Training is provided to new franchisees at Head Office where trainees experience both hands-on and book learning to ensure the correct policies and procedures are learnt from the beginning.

Car Service City remains dedicated to fostering invention and increasing business prospects for its franchisees while providing customers with a complete solution for their vehicle maintenance needs.
