About the Business:

Model Academy and Studio

Situated in Gauteng, South Africa, this leading model and talent agency is a well-established entity in the creative space. It encompasses a model academy and a fully operational photographic studio, each contributing to its robust income streams.

The model academy and studio are key components of this agency, offering a diverse range of professionally trained models for commercial and fashion bookings. Their reach extends not only within South Africa but also internationally, facilitating seamless connections between faces and brands.

In addition to model bookings, the agency provides a suite of services including model training, studio rental, photography, creative direction, make-up, and styling. These services are delivered by a team of dedicated professionals and experts, ensuring the highest standards of quality and client satisfaction.

Operating under a manager-run model, the owner has delegated the day-to-day responsibilities to a capable manager, allowing them to take a step back from regular business operations while maintaining oversight.

This business opportunity is priced at R1,115,000, excluding VAT, for a 90% share. It presents an exceptional chance for investors looking to enter or expand within the modeling and talent industry, offering stable income streams and a well-established reputation.

In conclusion, this agency stands as a testament to excellence in the modeling and talent sector, offering a range of services under one roof and representing a solid investment opportunity for discerning investors.
