Car Service City is a nationwide, award-winning network with over 85 servicing and repair workshops for all makes of cars and bakkies.

Founded in 2004 by Grant Brady, who serves as the franchisor, Car Service City is part of the Car City Holdings group. Franchisees own the majority of Car Service City branches, while Head Office operates a select number of branches to ensure alignment with the needs of both customers and Franchisees.

As a franchise, Car Service City guarantees that each of its workshops are managed by highly qualified Franchisees and skilled technical personnel who are all equipped with advanced technological resources. As a result, you can expect consistent, high-quality service regardless of which workshop you visit, with dedicated professionals ready to assist you. At the heart of our philosophy and business success is our commitment to offer customers the best quality service through conveniently located workshops, at affordable prices and in the most customer-pleasing way.

As proof of this commitment, the Car Service City franchise boasts numerous awards, including the 2017 Star Reader's Choice Winner for Best Car Service Centre; 2017 FASA Winner for Franchisor of the Year; 2017 FASA Finalist for Job Creator of the Year; and 2015 FASA Winner for Job Creator of the Year.
