Business Report

Background and History

This business started from humble beginnings in 2009, to a fully operational business with 6 staff members at present

The food range is varied with unique combinations of ingredients- all the affordable meals are ordered online and delivered to your doorstep

The high quality ingredients are sourced from the best suppliers of fresh/healthy suppliers including free range eggs etc

These ingredients are then creatively turned into great tasting meals

The potential to turn this business around is huge including but not limited to establishing small express outlets, linking these meals with medical/health organizations underwriting/supporting these meals, white label baby foods, expanding the business to other provinces (at this stage the meals are only supplied in Gauteng/Western Cape

Through the years this business has built up a huge database of clients which will be handed over to a buyer

Products and Services

Various meals that are delivered to clients- at this stage the service is operational in the Western Cape and Gauteng but can be expanded to other provinces
