To secure this fantastic opportunity, we kindly request a 50% deposit upfront, and upon payment, the buyer will receive an invoice. The remaining 50% will be held in an attorney trust account. Once the boat is in the water with all the necessary paperwork, the attorneys will release the funds to the seller to complete the transaction. Work will commence upon receipt of the initial deposit.

Note that any additional requirements or arrangements beyond this transaction will be handled directly between the buyer and Yachtport, where the boat is located. They will also handle the seaworthiness certification for your peace of mind.

Your Future Awaits!

Picture yourself at the helm of your own charter tours, creating memorable adventures for locals and tourists alike. With the right marketing and an exceptional customer experience, your business can stand out and thrive in the competitive travel market.
