Business Report

Fully describe the business's activities?

The business provides non-medical weight loss, wellness, and anti-aging skin treatments designed to enhance overall health and appearance. Services include personalized weight management programs, skin rejuvenation, and holistic wellness treatments. Operating on a franchise model, it offers training as part of the R20,000 franchise joining fee, ensuring consistency and quality across locations.

How does the business operate on a daily basis?

The business is now open five days a week, though the owner remains involved in another business. The current financial figures are based on the previous two-day-a-week operation, meaning a new owner who is fully dedicated has the potential to significantly improve financial performance. Daily operations include providing weight loss, wellness, and anti-aging skin treatments, managing appointments, and handling product sales.

What Advertising/Marketing is carried out?

The business primarily markets itself through social media campaigns and Google AdWords, with the option to collaborate with influencers for increased brand visibility and client engagement.

What competition exists?

The business faces typical competition within the weight loss, wellness, and anti-aging industry. However, the seller believes their approach stands out by offering a natural solution to clients, differentiating them from conventional alternatives.

How could the profitability of the business be improved?

Profitability could be improved through increased marketing efforts, leveraging influencers for greater brand exposure, and running targeted promotions to attract new clients and retain existing ones. Expanding operational hours or service offerings could also enhance revenue potential.

Give a breakdown of staff/ functions/ length of service?

The assistant has been with the business for twelve years

How involved is the Owner in running the business?

Ful time

When does the current lease end?

The current lease is on a month-to-month basis, with a strong relationship with the landlord. A new owner can negotiate a formal lease agreement for long-term stability.

What are the trading hours?

The business operates Monday to Thursday from 08:00 to 18:00 and Fridays from 08:00 to 16:00. For the past three years, the seller operated only two days a week due to studying commitments, but for the last two months, the business has been running five days a week. The financials currently reflect the previous two-day-a-week operation.
