About the Business:

Water Purification and Bottling Business

Enjoy H2O RO3 – Pure, Refreshing, and Convenient water—perfectly filtered for both home and business use. This water purification and bottling business uses an advanced RO3 filtration process to remove impurities while retaining a fresh, natural taste. To ensure the highest standards, continuous water testing is performed, guaranteeing every bottle meets strict quality and safety benchmarks.

Whether you need bottled water in various sizes, refills for your containers, or bulk water solutions, you'll find convenience, quality, and consistency in every drop.

With a loyal customer base of walk-in and corporate clients, this well-established water purification and bottling business for sale offers a strong reputation and dependable income. Services include daily bottled water deliveries, dispenser bottle supply, and optional rentals for hot and cold water dispensers, making it a full-service hydration solution across Centurion and surrounding areas.

Stock levels are carefully managed for smooth weekend coverage, and the business operates with efficient systems in place for opening, closing, and team communication. Daily operations are overseen by experienced staff, allowing the current owners to manage the business on a part-time basis.

This is a turnkey opportunity in a sought-after Pretoria suburb for an investor or owner-operator looking to enter a growing essential services sector with limited local competition and plenty of room for expansion.

Stay refreshed, stay healthy, and tap into a proven, high-demand business, ready to take to the next level.

The asking price excludes VAT and stock of ± R35,000.
