Business Report

Fully describe the business's activities?

The business is a well-established operation in Lydenburg offering custom upholstery, canvas products, and home décor solutions. Originally focused on specialist upholstery services, it has evolved into a broader retail and service provider—supplying curtains, blinds, quilts, and bespoke canvas work for residential and commercial clients.

The operation combines craftsmanship with practical design, serving walk-in customers and fulfilling made-to-order requests

How does the business operate on a daily basis?

The business operates from a dedicated premises in Lydenburg, serving both walk-in customers and custom-order clients. Core activities include:

- Upholstery & Canvas Work: On-site production and repairs for furniture, bakkie canopies, and bespoke canvas items
- Home Décor Sales: Retail of curtains, blinds, quilts, and related accessories
- Custom Orders: Tailored solutions for residential and commercial clients, with direct consultation and quoting
- Staff Roles: Skilled artisans handle production, while front-of-house staff manage sales, customer service, and scheduling
- Supplier Coordination: Regular stock intake from local and regional suppliers, with flexibility for special orders
- Operating Hours: Typically open 6–7 days a week, with hands-on owner involvement ensuring quality and responsiveness

What Advertising/Marketing is carried out?

The business relies primarily on word-of-mouth, visible output in the community, walk-in traffic, and direct client engagement via phone or WhatsApp.

No formal advertising campaigns are currently in place.

What competition exists?

The business faces light competition from local upholsterers and décor suppliers but stands out through its reputation, repeat clients, and specialized canvas work.

How could the profitability of the business be improved?

The business could improve profitability by modernizing its marketing footprint (e.g. social media, local online platforms), expanding service reach to nearby towns like Hoedspruit, and scaling operations to handle higher volumes.

Leveraging its reputation and repeat client base, especially in estates and mining sectors, would support targeted growth.
