About the Business:

Successful Manufacturing and Printing Business

Don't miss this opportunity to own a successful manufacturing and printing business based in the Garden Route, Western Cape.

With over 3 decades of flourishing trade and a reputation for quality and reliability, this business specialises in the production of canvas bags—school, sports, duffel, and rifle bags—as well as branded apparel and promotional products. Clients include schools, corporations, sports clubs, and national retailers.

Why is this a good opportunity?

- Long trading history and good reputation
- Skilled team in place with low turnover
- Repeat customer base with national footprint
- Low operational complexity—could suit a hands-on entrepreneur or family buyer
- Untapped marketing potential—room to grow through digital, schools, and corporate sales
- Relatively low asking price with decent ROI potential

The business offers a range of bag designs, featuring full in-house capabilities for embroidery, sublimation, and heat transfer printing. With no minimum order quantity, it offers exceptional flexibility, one of the key reasons for its strong repeat customer base and steady referrals.

This successful manufacturing and printing business represents a solid but underleveraged opportunity. It has good bones—established operations, loyal clientele, skilled staff, and modest overheads.

This is the ideal opportunity for a buyer with sales, marketing, or digital savvy to unlock growth potential. It's best suited to someone looking for a lifestyle business with upside rather than a passive investment.

The asking price excludes approximately R200,000 in stock and VAT.
