About the Business:

Niche Service and Supply Business

This is a well-established, niche service and supply business based in the scenic Garden Route, Western Cape, South Africa.

This is a hands-on, service-driven business built around South Africa's thriving coffee culture. It offers a well-rounded blend of recurring income streams, technical services, and product sales. Operations are streamlined and well-established, with the core focus on renting, servicing, and supplying coffee machines and related products.

This niche service and supply business is ideal for a technically or practically minded entrepreneur with a strong background in sales and customer service. If you understand the value of recurring revenue, have experience in operations or product sales, and are ready to scale a business with a strong foundation, this is your chance. With coffee consumption on the rise and increasing demand for both service and supply, the potential to expand into new territories or deepen local market penetration is significant.

Step into a business with everything in place—brand reputation, supplier relationships, client base—and take it to the next level.

The asking price excludes stock valued at approximately R90,000 and VAT.
