If you've been dreaming of running your café or restaurant in the Garden Route, this is your chance to make it happen. Please expect the financial records to be presented informally, consistent with what you would expect from an owner who lived their passion for people and the hospitality industry through the business and for whom this was a lifestyle business.

Please note that recent life events have prevented the owner from spending as much time in the business as would have been ideal over the past few months. The staff managed to continue business as usual with the owner checking in once or twice a week. The business ideally needs a hands-on owner who wants to be actively involved, someone who loves entertaining and good food experiences.
