About the Business:

Centrally Located Take Away

Are you a dynamic, hands-on entrepreneur with a love for retail and hospitality? Then this is your opportunity to acquire a thriving fast-casual restaurant and adjoining coffee outlet nestled in a charming town along South Africa's scenic Garden Route region. With a devoted local following and mouth-watering menu offerings—from hearty burgers and fish dishes to pizzas and sandwiches—this café-style venue is a beloved staple in its community.

The establishment boasts an exciting combination of value-driven specials (think burger + chips + soft drink combos), daily promotions like “Pizza Mondays” and “Friday pizza deals,” and a broad appeal that includes healthy options and regional favourites.

What’s more, next door sits a snug coffee shop offering excellent potential for expansion, synergy, or diversification—perfect for the buyer who wants to continue growing the business or explore new concepts. The company is operated efficiently by dedicated and well-trained staff with a stable and all-year-round customer base. The business offers sit-down, take-away and delivery options.

Here’s your chance to take the helm of an established, adaptable food-retail concept with solid community roots and multiple revenue streams. If you’re ready to step into a rewarding role where your entrepreneurial spirit can flourish, this could be your next venture.
