About the Business:

Boost Oxygen

Boost Oxygen branded portable supplemental oxygen canisters. Product range is a widely used international brand and may be sold over the counter without a doctor's script. Currently the Owner can only give the product range part time attention due to other business commitments. The business offers distribution opportunities on a national basis. An ideal opportunity for an established agent who calls on pharmacy and health shop outlets to increase their product offering. A marketing initiative to concentrate on more “on-line” selling also would contribute positively to the profitability. You also buy the sole import and distribution rights for Africa.

Business Report

Fully describe the business's activities?

Business Description – Boost Oxygen SA

Boost Oxygen SA is a fully operational Shopify-based e-commerce retail business specialising in the import, marketing, and nationwide distribution of portable, 95% pure supplemental oxygen canisters under the internationally recognised Boost Oxygen® brand from the USA.

The business operates as a modern, online-first retail model — customers purchase directly through the Shopify e-commerce store, which is fully integrated with a professional warehousing and courier partner. This integration ensures that all orders are automatically processed, picked, packed, and delivered directly to the customer's doorstep anywhere in South Africa, providing a seamless fulfilment and logistics chain.

Boost Oxygen SA's activities include:

Importation & Distribution – sourcing and managing shipments from Boost Oxygen USA, ensuring consistent stock levels and product compliance.

E-commerce Management – maintaining the Shopify platform, updating product listings, pricing, and promotional content.

Digital Marketing & Sales – running online campaigns through Google, Meta (Facebook/Instagram), and email marketing to drive brand awareness and online sales.

Wholesale Supply – servicing select retail and sports outlets, health and wellness centres, and adventure/sporting distributors across the country.

Customer Service – managing client inquiries, returns, and order tracking via the Shopify dashboard and linked CRM system.

Brand Expansion Opportunities – potential to scale product offerings into related wellness, travel, and sports recovery categories, leveraging existing e-commerce infrastructure.

This structure allows the business to operate with low overheads, automated systems, and high scalability potential, making it an attractive turnkey acquisition for an entrepreneur or investor seeking a ready-to-run, modern online retail operation in the health and wellness space.
