Strengths?

- Conveniently situated in a rural mall with steady foot traffic
- Wide product variety and reliable availability
- Strong community reputation and loyal customer base
- Low owner involvement creates opportunity for a hands-on buyer
- Predictable seasonal demand ensuring resilience

Weaknesses?

- Owner only visits monthly for stocktake
- Limited oversight of daily operations
- Reliance on a single supplier at higher prices
- Minimal advertising beyond in-store promotions
- Profit margins constrained by sourcing costs

Opportunities?

- Source stock from multiple suppliers at lower cost
- Improve margins with cash purchases on fast movers
- Increase owner involvement for tighter control
- Expand local marketing and community engagement
- Add seasonal and premium product lines

Threats?

- Competition from large national liquor chain nearby
- Rising supplier costs reducing margins
- Risk of theft or shrinkage without close oversight

What is the reason for the sale?

The business is located over two hours from the seller's base and other operations in Gauteng, making regular oversight impractical.
