They now wish to down scale and spend more quality time with family and pursuing their personal interests.

The Seller is prepared to offer an extended hand over period subject to certain parameters.

Why is this a good business?

The business is an excellent opportunity for an experienced estate agent offering substantial earning potential.

It has been built on several years of the Owner being actively involved with the local community and sponsoring of a number of social sporting events and magazines, charities etc.

Very importantly, the fact that the Seller will offer an extended handover period is beneficial to the Buyer.

What is the profile of the ideal Buyer?

An experienced and registered estate agent with a valid Fidelity Fund Certificate.

Ideally the type of person who is prepared to be actively involved with the social sporting events that the business currently supports, and also the other initiatives such as charity events.

It suits a person who enjoys being of high profile within the community and prepared to go the extra mile and put in the extra hours.

This is not a typical 9 am to 5 pm type position and can be quite demanding but very rewarding.

A potential Buyer will also be required to submit proof of funds and a valid NDA prior to confidential information being shared.
