Business Reference:BFS00270

About the Business:

Unique opportunity to purchase a feasible established market in the Cape Town Metropolitan area

Very rare opportunity to become the owner of this vibrant market who encompasses all the elements of a market that visitors expect namely live entertainment, art, crafts, jewellery, fashion and most importantly various food offerings made fresh in the presence of visitors

The success of this market is entrenched in catering for various visitors namely the local residents (community focused), weekend visitors to the historic town, and national/international visitors throughout the year

Kids are not left out of the product offerings and have various creative options available to keep them busy

The market has a high traffic presence with unbeatable prices on products without compromising quality

The market, a member of the Cape Town Tourism, is the gathering spot for various target visitors groups and has a unique heartbeat, typical of this town but ultimately the Western Cape

The owners have built this market up through years and have a success recipe here, where a new buyer just walks into a key operation business and continues on the winning streak
