About the Business:

Become the Owner of a Deli with Unique Offerings

Since 2010

This deli situated in a frequently visited seaside town, offers quality, mouthwatering dishes in the restaurant section, complementing by a deli which presents fresh, daily baked goods which is very authentic, and focus on wholesome healthy product offerings, including artisanal handcrafted items

The owner has over years researched and ethically sourced and found unique food manufacturers for the business and is renowned throughout the Western Cape as the business offering exclusive products with clean labels

Due to this, the deli has now become the gathering place on a daily basis of both locals, visitors from adjacent towns as well as tourists

The owner has meticulously built this reputation up over years but now wishes to venture into another business in another town, and hence the reason for selling

A buyer will buy 100% shares in the Pty Ltd, as all the suppliers etc, has contracts with the Pty Ltd

There are 15 staff members full time, split between the restaurant and deli sections

The owner rents extra space at 2 other locations to store goods
